Dear Friends,

As we reach the final day for Americans to cast their ballots, I want to thank everyone who has helped DMFI PAC in all our efforts this election cycle. Created less than two years ago to ensure the Democratic Party remains firmly pro-Israel and to help elect and re-elect pro-Israel Democrats across the country – together we have had an incredible impact in a short period of time.

We have put together examples – which will be updated as we get final results from races in which we were involved – and you can click here to read about our results.

More broadly, we have made clear that being pro-Israel in the Democratic Party is a political asset, not a liability. Time and again, we have demonstrated that being a pro-Israel Democrat is good politics and good US policy.

Our work is far from over though. No matter the results today, we know that the same forces who - for years - have tried to drive pro-Israel voices from the Party will continue their efforts.

This means that we must not only continue our work to combat them, but grow in order to defeat them and keep the Democratic Party true to its' proud, pro-Israel traditions.

None of this will be possible without you. I'm grateful for all you have done, and all we will do together to further this critical cause.

Thank you again and I look forward to being in touch in the days and weeks ahead.

Sincerely,
